Addendum 2

HAMPDEN/ZIMMERMAN:

As most of you have heard, Hampden/Zimmerman Electric Supply was acquired by USESI in January of 2007. Subsequently, USESI has been acquired by CED as part of the ongoing changes. HZ Electric is being merged with Electrical Wholesalers (EW), a company previously acquired by USESI. This merger will result in the name Hampden/Zimmerman being dropped as a DBA and all the locations will now come under the DBA of Electrical Wholesalers.
